Brandon Sergey Kerr, 11, of Hope Mills, NC, passed away on Monday, January 30, 2012. Brandon was born on March 29, 2000 in Odessa, Ukraine. On April 8, 2011 Tim and Carinda adopted him from the Ukraine. Both were fully convinced they were being led of God to adopt; and even with this premature death—they would not give up the eight months of love and joy Brandon brought into their lives. It seemed as though Brandon was born with a smile on his face. Without reservation, he loved his adopted family and instantly became a part of the family at Berean Baptist Church and Academy. He loved soccer, basketball, airplanes, biking, the great outdoors and his neighborhood buddies. The two words that best describe Brandon are “neat and joyful”. His smile will forever be in our hearts. We look forward to the glorious day when we will see him again.

He is survived by his father and mother, Tim and Carinda Kerr, and three sisters, Katie, Kylie, and Haley Kerr; grandparents Dave and Nancy Breen; grandparents Andrew and Marilyn Kerr; sweet grandmother Vera and Uncle Toyla of Ukraine; Carinda’s sister Christy, her husband Steve, cousins Jalen and Alexis; Tim’s brother Bill, his wife Heather, cousins, Evie, Layla, Simon, Naomi; Tim’s brother Steve, his fiancé Kati; Tim’s sister, Bethany; great-grandparents Lester and June Betts; great grandmother Marion Kerr; and many loving aunts, uncles and cousins. Brandon’s dimples and enthusiastic hugs will be missed greatly.
