Giving Options

The work of the church, the giving to those in need, and the support of global partners in the proclamation of the gospel of the Lord Jesus Christ both here and abroad requires the faithful, consistent, generous giving of all of God's people associated with Berean Baptist Church. When one person chooses not to give, the work of the Lord is being limited by disobedience and sin.

This giving can be done in numerous ways including the giving of time and special talents; however, what is absolutely necessary is the giving of money to the ministry. Without money, the vision of a greater more influencing ministry will not be achieved. It is only through the sacrificial giving of thousands of people for over forty years of history that the church is what it is today and it is only through the same giving that it will be an influential church in the community for decades to come.

You can give to the work of the Lord through Berean in several ways:

- Bank Draft - e-giving
 - Anyone can set up an e-giving account online and manage it themselves. The instructions on how to do this are on page two.
 - You may also fill out a simple one page form and we will set everything up for you. The bank draft form is the last page of this document. Simply print the page and send it back to the church.
 - Those who are giving electronically do not have to fill out a giving envelope. This data will be recorded by the church.
- Check or Cash
 - Some people choose to give their gift to the Lord each week by placing it in the collection plate when it is passed during a preaching service.
 - Please take the time to fill out a giving envelope or use the one we mail you each month and place your gift in an envelope
 - If you are not receiving giving envelopes in the mail please call the church and ask for your name to be added to the list.
- Online Banking
 - Many people choose to set their gift up on an automatic bank check system where the bank mails the church a check.
 - These checks are deposited with the Sunday offering and the office staff ensures that the giving is annotated on the individual's giving record.
- Debit/Credit Card
 - Anytime you wish you can make a donation to the church through the bookstore or through the Debit/Credit option in e-giving.
